CODE OF CONDUCT

- The MGHL code of conduct is for all players, parents, coaches, managers, trainers, officials, volunteers, spectators and employees involved with MGHL and MGHL activities.
- The MGHL promotes a safe and positive environment where standards of behaviour are created from respect. This includes respect for the game, respect for the rules, respect for the officials, respect for the opposition, respect for teammates and coaches.
- All individuals involved with the MGHL must follow and adhere to the rules of conduct set out by the City of Mississauga. These rules of conduct can be found posted in all Mississauga arenas and include a code for parents, league organizers, players, coaches and spectators.
- Failure to comply with this code of conduct may result in disciplinary action taken by the MGHL. This action may result in the loss of MGHL privileges including participation in MGHL activities.
